Government Funding is drying up. Please help kids learn to talk.

Vindi Wells has been working as a speech therapist on the island for many years and needs to catch up with the high tech environment of the computer world so she can reach out to kids at a level they understand and respond to. That means having hardware and software that functions at a professional level. Vindi has been working with students at our North Shore Schools and trying to get the equipment through the county has been fruitless. She is on a quest to help these kids and is going to every group she can to ask for funding. Filling her wish list would cost about $14,000. If you can help, contact Vindi or Grant Wells. Vindi is the daughter in law of our very active club member Terry Wells.

Charlene Dyer's rendition of "Kalapaki Moon" won the singing competition To vote for the composition to win, go to this site <http://www.mentorohana.org/survey-71.html>

Tony Motta was happy to pass along a certificate representing thanks for our contribution to the K-Pal building

Monti Downs got a day off from the Emergency Room to join us at the meeting

Branch was happy to see Monti downs at the meeting

Mike Hubbard was happy that his brother won another body surfing competition

John Harder was sad to announce that he would be taking a job helping the Mayor with Landfill problems and would not be at meetings

Chick Lanphier is still happy

Marjorie Founce had a dollar for every mile she finished in the aloha Run

George Corrigan's grandson Patrick Sickel was a visitor

Tsajon von Lixfeld was $100 happy that he had a good time skiing in California

New member

New member Casey Kellar is inducted into the club by sponsor Robert Dickstein and president George Corrigan.

Heartfelt thanks

Kilauea School principal Sherry Scott thanks the club for all of the support and help the club has given the school from painting the building out front, to the free book distribution, and more.

K-Pal Blessing

Sally Motta points to the plaque that represents our clubs contribution to turning an abandoned building into a place for kids to gather after school.

Coming Attractions

Club Services Chair Tony Motta announced that the club will be having an Estate Sale the first week in April. It's a lot of work but it is a big fund raiser for the club.

The club will also have a Miniature Golf Tournament on May 23rd. There will be prizes. It's a great way for the club to pull together to help repair the pier.

A Bingo party is in the works with details to come at a later time.

28 people are still alive today

A new star was added to the rescue tube in the meeting. Jeff Goodman recounted how when he was president, Robert Dickstein said there was someone putting rescue tubes on bushes and that it might be a good project for the club to take on. Since then John Gillen promoted the project when he was president and George Corrigan has put his support behind the project in his term. Honorary member Dr. Monti Downs has made it a personal challenge to cut down on drowning by spearheading the rescue tube efforts. Left to right, in the photo is Dr. Monti Downs, George Corrigan, Branch Lotspeich, Robert Dickstein, John Gillen and Dr. Jeff Goodman

Corrigan's Corner

The Celebrity View of life.

We have women in the military, but they don't put us in the front lines. They don't know if we can fight, if we can kill. I think we can. All the general has to do is walk over to the women and say, "You see the enemy over there? They say you look fat in those uniforms." - Elayne Boosler

Always be nice to your children because they are the ones who will choose your rest home. - Phyllis Diller

When the sun comes up, I have morals again. - Elayne Boosler

Garage Sale in April

Anne Corrigan had some help cleaning up the storage building, and sorting merchandise for the Garage Sale. Volunteers included George Corrigan, Bob Horn, Mike Dyer, Susan Elliot-Hubbard, Jonathan McRoberts, Michael Somers and Larry Wharton
