Roz Cooper talks up Foundation

Past District Governor, Roz Cooper said that the Rotary International is well on it's way to meeting the Bill gates Challenge and has raised 150 million of the 200 that is the goal. She said there was more good news from the Bill and Melinda Gates foundation because they are partnering with the crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and donating another 50 million to vaccinate kids in Afghanistan and Pakistan. Two of the hold out countries that Rotary has not been able to reach with the Polio Plus program. She said that our club exceed our goals and was leading the pack with our support for the Polio Plus Program. She also explained how we could do even more.

President Elect Bob Capwell filled in for George Corrigan and was acting president for this meeting.

Tsajon von Lixfeld presented the club with a $1000 check for the Hanalei Pier Repair project.

Branch Lotspeich was delighted with the turnout at Black Pot Beach for the Rotary Work day.

Chick Lanphier is still happy

Marjorie Gifford was happy that she is fully staffed to provide free tax returns for low income families and people over 60 through AARP

Jonathan McRoberts paid a fine for having his cell phone ring.

Lucy Adams holds up a banner from Cliff Doctormans club. She said she attended four Rotary meetings this past week but was considered a visitor at her own club.

Mike Dyer said his hand was in the photo so he paid less than John.

John Gillen introduced his wife Catherine

Potential member Kawika Dela Sierra our Foodland pharmacist came as guest

$2,500 for Polio Plus

John and Monica Oszust along with Bob Capwell presented a check to Roz Cooper, for $2,500 to benefit Polio Plus, that was raised by selling raffle tickets for a Hawaiian quilt that Monica made. John thanked all of the Rotary members that bought tickets and helped out by taking their time to sell tickets at Foodland.

John Oszust presented Award

Roz Cooper presented John Oszust with a Rotary Award for his efforts to put the club over the top in their support for Polio Plus and the Rotary Foundation.

$10,000 to feed the hungry

Branch Lotspeich, Community Service Chair of the Rotary Club of Hanalei Bay presents The Kauai Independent Food Bank a Weinberg Foundation donation of $10,000. Kristen Joy Collins, Assistant Director and Kelvin Moniz, Director of Food Resources from the Food Bank accept.

The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation provided the donation as part of its Friends Program wherein 29 members of the Rotary Club of Hanalei Bay cleaned and painted the restrooms at Black Pot Beach at Hanalei Bay last Saturday and by their service qualified for the Weinberg donation to the Food Bank; a win-win-win situation.
